

H

ITINERARY SUMMARY

- DAY 1
Calvi – Girolata

DAY 2
Girolata – Ajaccio

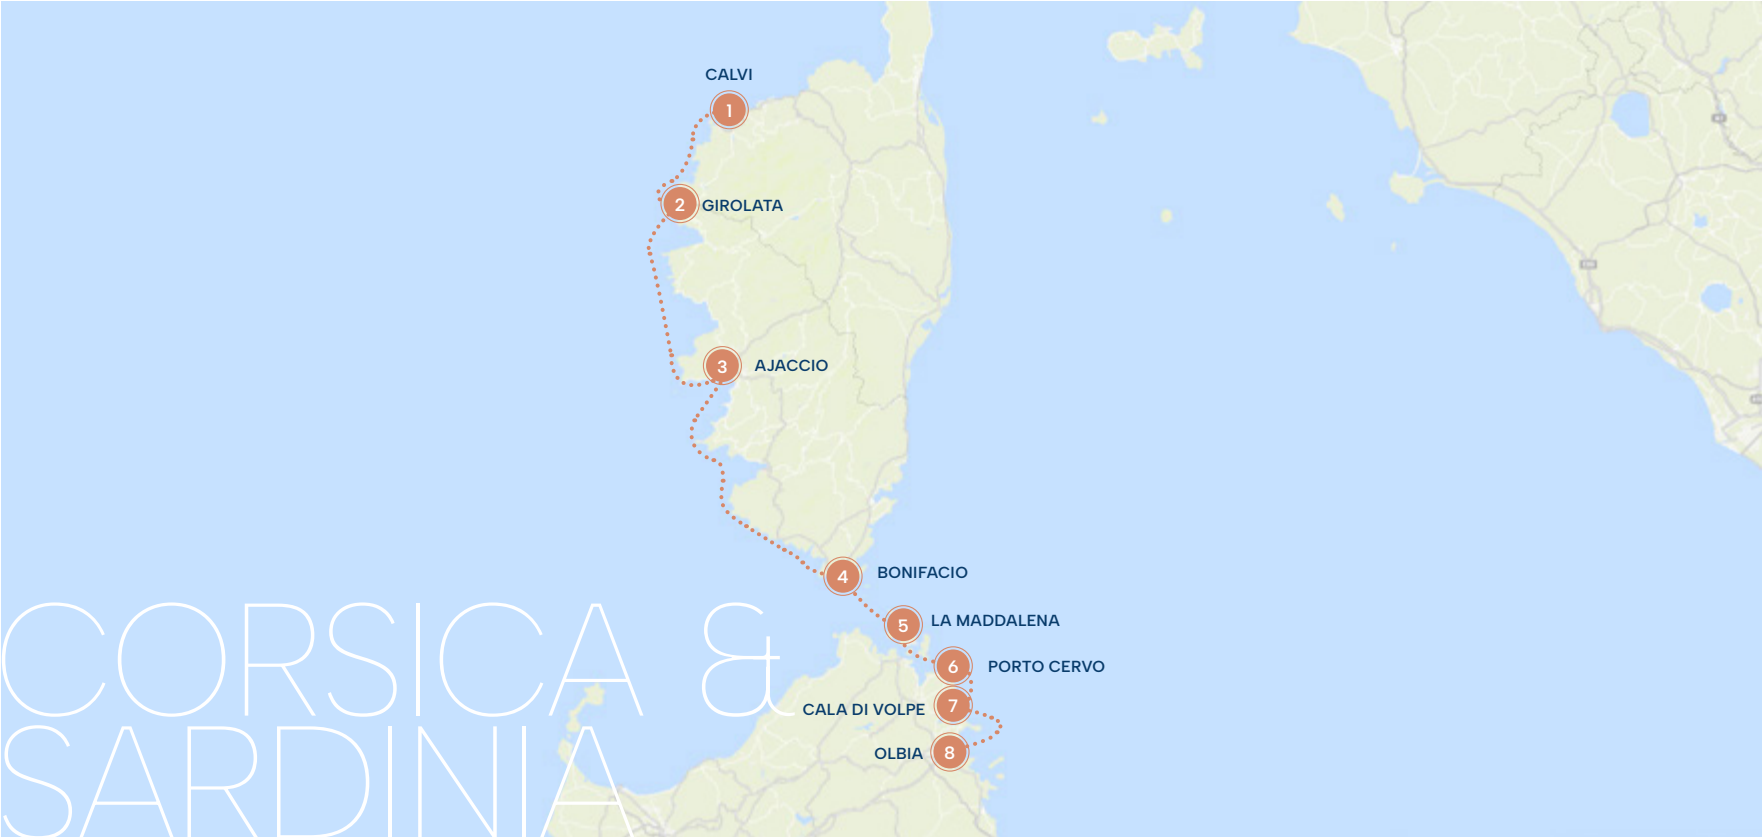

DAY 3
Ajaccio – Bonifacio

DAY 4
Bonifacio – La Maddalena

DAY 5
La Maddalena – Porto Cervo
- DAY 6
Porto Cervo – Cala Di Volpe

DAY 7
Cala Di Volpe – Porto Rotondo

DAY 8
Porto Rotondo – Olbia

DAY 1

CALVI - GIROLATA

Distance: 24 nm
Duration: 2 hours and 35 minutes
Temperature: 27°

Gorgeous Girolata is an impressive feat. Swallowed by the dramatic red cliffs and bright blue sea that makes up the Scandola Nature Reserve, it's a one of a kind destination for charter guests. No roads lead to this tiny hamlet, wedged between some of Corsica's most spectacular scenery. The Scandola Nature Reserve is a celebrated UNESCO monument. Volcanic origins, lashings of space, and massive biodiversity, you will find the skies and seas flooded with life. From golden eagles to ash puffins, and over two hundred species of fish, nature lovers will fall head over heels for Girolata. Girolata itself is made of mule tracks, tiny markets, soaring cliffs, and pockets of life living on one of nature's greatest sets.

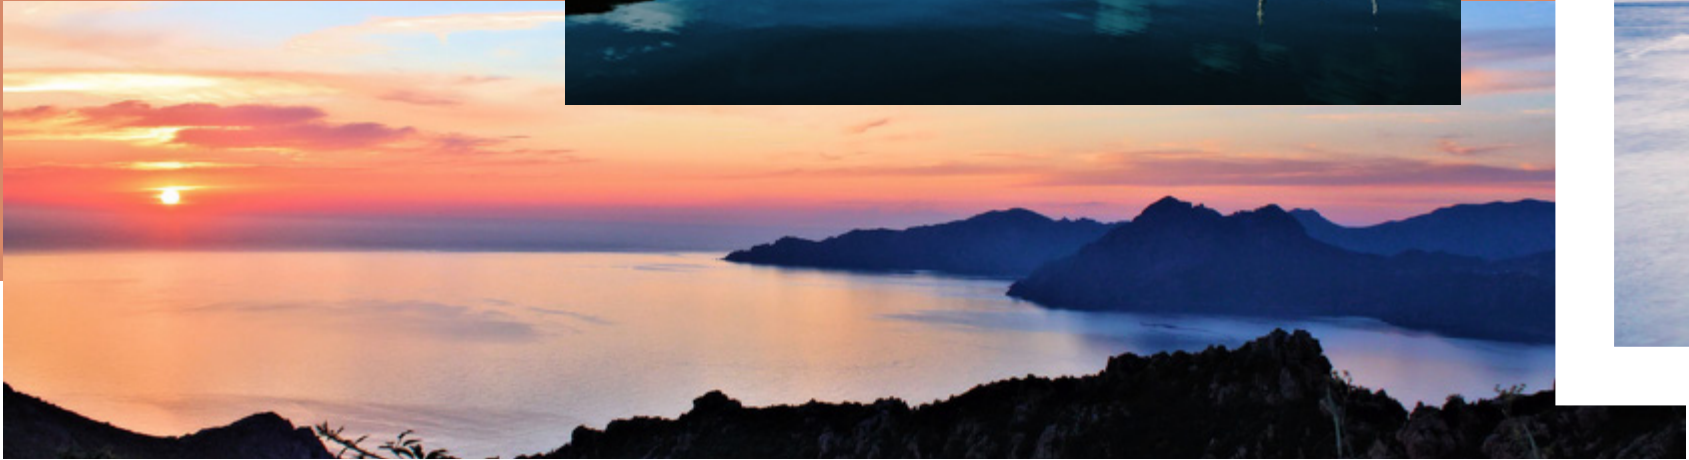

DAY 2

GIROLATA - AJACCIO

Distance: 37 nm
Duration: 4 hours
Temperature: 27°

The elegant Ajaccio, Capital of Corsica, is set in one of the Mediterranean's most stunning Gulfs on the west coast of the island. One its most famous inhabitants is Napoleon Bonaparte, who was born here in 1769, and whose ancestral home is now a museum. The city is home to two marinas and with its palm lined boulevards and waterside cafes, it's easy to see why it is compared to the glamorous Côte d'Azur. The old town has plenty of alleyways to explore its wonderful history. Further out, you can make the most of the gulf's beautiful beaches, and explore the Iles Sanguinaires where the sunsets are magical!

DAY 3

AJACCIO - BONIFACIO

Distance: 48 nm
Duration: 5 hours and 5 minutes
Temperature: 26°

On stunning white, limestone cliffs at the south end of Corsica lies the spectacular harbour town of Bonifacio. The old citadel, perched on the precipice, rises high above the sea, overlooking the natural harbour below, that has sheltered many boats of the centuries and is now a modern marina. Some of the medieval townhouses that dominate these cliffs are a few stories high, but only one room deep. Worth a visit is the beautiful maritime cemetery and the old convent of St Francois. On a clear day, from the Esplanade St Francois, you can see right across the bay to Sardinia.

DAY 4

BONIFACIO - LA MADDALENA

Distance: 13 nm
Duration: 1 hour and 25 minutes
Temperature: 26°

La Maddalena lends it's name to an archipelego around 60 isles and islands on the northeast coast of the Sardinia. The island of the same name, is the only permanently inhabited island in this achipelego. The national park is famous for it's photogenic beaches, such as Octopus Head Beach where you will definitely want to get out your snorkels and plunge in to the water to see what's beneath.

DAY 5

LA MADDALENA - PORTO CERVO

Distance: 12 nm
Duration: 1 hour and 20 minutes
Temperature: 31°

Porto Cervo is one of Sardinia's most well-known, luxurious and chic locations. The marina is situated in a beautiful, sheltered harbor. The Costa Smeralda Yacht Club is one of the best equipped in the Mediterranean. With steady winds, this is yacht racing territory, and plays host to regattas such as the Perini Navi Cup, the Dubois Cup, Pendennis, Fitzroy and more. This glamorous destination is the choice of rock stars and royalty, and it's not difficult to see why. There is a fantastic mix of beaches, wonderful shopping, great night life and excellent restaurants. It's a hive of activity in the height of summer, and you're bound to be surrounded by some of the biggest, most luxurious superyachts in the world.

DAY 6

PORTO CERVO - CALA DI VOLPE

Distance: 7 nm
Duration: 45 minutes
Temperature: 31°

Cala Di Volpe, situated in the heart of the Costa Smeralda, has all of the glitz and glamour that this stretch of Sardinian coast has to offer, but with a touch more tranquility, as it is less developed than some of its more popular neighbours. An old fishing village at heart, Cala di Volpe features pastel-colored homes and a classic Mediterranean port, all set against the beautiful backdrop of the mountains of Golfo Aranci and Isola Tavolara. You'll also find picture perfect beaches with a laid back vibe, perfect for one of your quieter charter days.unbelievable blue. The Gardens of Augustus are also worth a stroll and the Villa San Michele is sure to steal your heart.

DAY 7

CALA DI VOLPE - PORTO ROTONDO

Distance: 4 nm
Duration: 25 minutes
Temperature: 32°

Unique bars, nightlife and fabulous beaches: a perfect spot in the north-east of Gallura, the little town that is a strict competitor to Porto Cervo. Situated just a few kilometres from Golfo Aranci, this exceptionally well maintained town, thanks to the occupants of its huge villas which act as holiday homes to many a celebrity and politician, also has a very well equipped marina with around 800 moorings for yachts. You can also anchor your yacht off Spiaggia Ira for for a fun day of watersports or simply enjoy a stroll in the knee deep waters of this vast, powdery sand beach.touch to the island's overall landscape.The wineries, planted on terraced grounds, give a special touch to the island's overall landscape.

DAY 8

PORTO ROTONDO - OLBIA

Distance: 16 nm
Duration: 1 hour and 45 minutes
Temperature: 33°

Olbia is the gateway to Sardinia, with its large port and international airport. This dynamic, fun, cosmopolitan city is filled with interesting history and has gone through much renovation in recent times. The trendy waterfront and marina have many paved, pedestrian only walkways, filled with fantastic restaurants, bars and quaint shops. It's not an uncommon site to see people queueing for ice-creams at midnight in the summer, at one of the many renowned ice-cream parlours.

H

