DAY 1

PISA - FORTE DEI MARMI

Distance: 20 nm
Duration: 2 hours and 10 minutes
Temperature: 28°

A lovely tourist destination, Forte dei Marmi is enchanting in summer. Do not miss the beautiful walk along the beach, and the “Corso” which is 5 km long. Shops and luxury boutiques mark the walk along the promenade, with of course plenty of fantastic restaurants where you can enjoy local fish dishes in the company of good music.

DAY 2

FORTE DEI MARMI - PORTO VENERE

Distance: 14 nm
Duration: 1 hour and 30 minutes
Temperature: 28°

Porto Venere is a picturesque Italian destination on the Ligurian Sea. Renowned for its natural beauty, striking coastline, rugged limestone cliffs and colourful buildings, Porto Venere draws many visitors each year. Yachting amenities in the area include a wide selection of marinas, yacht clubs and harbours, providing premium docking and services for all kinds of vessels. For an evening out, Porto Venere is home to a variety of delicious restaurants, serving everything from local Ligurian specialties to international cuisine. Explore the local sights, there is no shortage of activities to enjoy in the quaint medieval centre of town.

DAY 3

PORTO VENERE - PORTOFINO

Distance: 33 nm
Duration: 3 hours and 35 minutes
Temperature: 26°

Portofino is a small but glamorous town, surrounded by silver hills and old olive groves. The harbour and coastline views are awe-inspiring from the top of the hill. You’ll find plenty of coffee shops, boutiques and gelatarias in the port square, the perfect place to relax and enjoy the glamorous world of yachting. From here you can sail along the coast to the Cinque Terre – five coastal villages sharing a spectacular sea view.

DAY 4

PORTOFINO - SAVONA

Distance: 35 nm
Duration: 3 hours and 45 minutes
Temperature: 30°

Behind Savona’s large port, lies a lovely medieval city with plenty to see. The regenerated old town, still keeps its old world charm with plenty of churches, monuments and historic relics of note to visit. Savona is noted for being the home of Christopher Columbus who farmed land in the area.

DAY 5

SAVONA - GENOVA

Distance: 21 nm
Duration: 2 hours and 10 minutes
Temperature: 30°

Genova is known for its natural beauty, rich culture, and vast array of attractions ranging from architectural marvels to outdoor recreation. With its prime location on the Mediterranean Sea, Genova's picturesque shoreline is ideal for superyacht mooring, while its warm Mediterranean climate ensures a pleasant experience year round. Genova is an excellent base to explore the nearby Cinque Terre and Portofino, while its bustling harbour is renowned for its bustling port, which provides an exciting opportunity to explore the city's past. From the iconic Galata Museo del Mare to the Palazzo Ducale and boutique restaurants, Genova offers something to delight visitors of all ages. With its luxury yacht charters, and unlimited opportunities for adventure, Genova is a must-see for superyacht travelers.

DAY 6

GENOVA - CINQUE TERRE

Distance: 41 nm
Duration: 4 hours and 20 minutes
Temperature: 29°

The five postcard-perfect villages of the "Cinque Terre" which means "five lands" lie along the short stretch of cliffs of the Ligurian coast - Monterosso, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola and Riomaggiore. The natural beauty of the scenery and the shabby authentic charm of the fishermen's villages have been little affected by tourism. These little villages are best visited by tender and then on foot, so pack your comfy walking shoes!

DAY 7

CINQUE TERRE - PORTO VENERE

Distance: 8 nm
Duration: 55 minutes
Temperature: 28°

Porto Venere is one of the Liguria's prettiest harbour towns, lying close to Liguria's southern border. It guards the Gulf of Poets, a large bay famous for being connected with Shelley and Byron. The largest city in the bay, La Spezia, is a naval base with some nautical-themed museums and known for its yacht building.

DAY 8

PORTO VENERE - VIAREGGIO

Distance: 21 nm
Duration: 2 hours and 15 minutes
Temperature: 29°

Viareggio is a stunning cultural destination renowned for its yacht building. It's often missed as a stopping point for the area's more popular destinations such as the Cinque Terre & Tuscan Archipelego, however Viareggio more than holds its own, with over 10km of long sandy beaches, lined with gelatarias, cafes & plenty of high-end shops.
